Is boardmaker free

Boardmaker is a comprehensive solution for parents, teachers, and organizations seeking to enhance their home school, classrooms, or school districts. It offers various options, including a single account with one license for individualized instruction, allowing users to create, edit, print, and engage with materials using the Editor, Student Center, myBoardmaker, and Curriculum tools. For educators teaching up to 10 students, a single account with multiple learners is available, providing all personal components plus individual task assignment, data tracking, and personalized access settings for each student. Additionally, multiple accounts with multiple students cater to those managing multiple organizations, offering central control of information and multiple administrator rights. Boardmaker also provides a one-time purchase option for a single license usable on two devices, featuring efficient creation, editing, printing, and playing of PCS-based teaching materials with the Editor tool. This solution is ideal for parents and educators seeking a flexible and intuitive platform to support their teaching needs.
